

This Christmas, give a gift that lasts...

The Gift of Education

with The Haitian Project

Looking for a meaningful gift that is sure to be cherished? Look no further!

Instead of giving more "stuff" this Christmas, consider making a donation to The Haitian Project in honor of your loved ones. Simply complete the form below and return it in the enclosed envelope with your accompanying donation.

Or, to give online, simply visit www.HaitianProject.org/donate, select "Gift of Education" at check-out and fill in your loved one's name and address.

We'll send your loved one a Christmas card letting them know that you gave students in Haiti the gift of a life-changing education in their honor!

Are you tired of receiving gifts that you don't want or can't use? Ask your family and friends to donate to The Haitian Project in your honor instead of buying you gifts this year. We assure you that the Gift of Education will not go to waste!

..... Cut here

I would like to give The Gift of Education in honor of a loved one this Christmas.
